COLUMBIANA-MAHONING-TRUMBULL COUNTY CATTLEMEN'S
STEER & HEIFER SHOW

Saturday - June 5, 2010 – Columbiana County Fairgrounds

Purpose: To promote beef breeding and raising by our youth and to provide them with an opportunity for a regional spring show.

This is a junior show, eligible exhibitors are anyone 21 years of age or younger, as of show date.

Heifers will be shown by breed, only if there are at least 3 entries within the breed. To show by breed, animals must be accompanied by registration papers in accordance with breed association standards, and be in the exhibitors name by the show day. Animals without registration papers will show as crossbreds.

Steers and heifers must be born on or after January 1, 2009.

Grand Champion females and Reserve Champion females will be established for each beef breed plus commercial entries (crossbreds and/or unregistered purebreds).

Conformation Steer Show for market calves on feed, sired by a beef breed sire. Show will be judged on conformation, not finish. Steers will be shown by hip height.

A class has been added for Columbiana-Mahoning-Trumbull County exhibitors only.

No bulls will be shown.

There will be showmanship classes (No entry fee required).

Out of state exhibitors will need health papers.

Entry fee per animal: $25, which must accompany entry. No refunds. Entries may also be made show day. Make checks payable to CMTCA.

No bedding will be furnished. NO Shavings, Bark or Sawdust – STRAW ONLY PLEASE!

No unethical grooming practices will be allowed! Painting will be permitted.

The Columbiana–Mahoning-Trumbull County Cattlemen's Assn. And/or the Columbiana County Fair Board will not be responsible for any accident or loss. You will be responsible for yourselves and your cattle.

No admittance to Fairgrounds before 6:00 A.M. show day without prior permission. All animals and exhibitors must leave Fairgrounds by 8:00 P.M. show day.

All animals must be entered and checked in by 10:30 A.M. show day. Heifers scheduled to show at 12:00 noon followed by steers and showmanship.
